1. Communication and interaction by the company with its investors and other stakeholders
1.1. Dialogue between company, shareholders and other stakeholders
1.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors ensure ongoing dialogue between the company and its shareholders in order for the shareholders to gain relevant insight into the company's potential and policies, and in order for the board of directors to be aware of the shareholders' views, interests and opinions on the company.	X			The Board of Directors has approved a communications policy. Further, TDC has a tax policy and the main elements of the tax policy are presented once a year to the Audit Committee.  Further, TDC complies with the recommendation through the annual board review and approval of TDC's strategy. The strategy contains TDC's

1.2. General meeting
1.2.1. The Committee recommends that when organizing the company’s general meeting, the board of directors plans the meeting to support active ownership.	X			The company invites its shareholders to participate in general meetings via the notice to convene. The notice is sent to all listed shareholders who have stated their e-mail address and is furthermore published by way of stock exchange announcement which is made available on the company’s website. The board recommendation regarding the general meeting addresses the question in relation to conduct of the general meeting by personal attendance or electronically, wholly or partly, and the decision of the Board of Directors is included in the notice.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
1.2.2. The Committee recommends that proxies granted for the general meeting allow shareholders to consider each individual item on the agenda.	X
1.3. Takeover bids
1.3.1. The Committee recommends that the company set up contingency procedures in the event of takeover bids from the time that the board of directors has reason to believe that a takeover bid will be made. According to such contingency procedures, the board of directors should not without the acceptance of the general meeting, attempt to counter the takeover bid by making decisions which in reality prevent the shareholders from deciding on the takeover bid themselves.	X			The Board of Directors has approved a set of takeover guidelines with the contents recommended.
2. Tasks and responsibilities of the board of directors
2.1. Overall tasks and responsibilities
2.1.1. The Committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors take a position on the matters related to the board's performance of its responsibilities.	X			The Board of Directors' attendance to its tasks is organised in an annual cycle, a list of actions towards the Board as well as the Rules of Procedure for the Board of Directors. At each ordinary board meeting, a review of the list of actions towards the Board is made and an updated action list is circulated after the board meeting. Annually, the Board of Directors reviews its rules of procedure in order to ensure that the tasks of the Board of Directors are adapted to the company's business and needs.

2.1.2. The Committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors take a position on the overall strategy of the company with a view to ensuring value creation in the company.	X			Annually, one or more strategic seminar(s) is/are held for the Board of Directors prior to the Board of Directors' taking a final position on the company's overall strategy.
2.1.3. The Committee recommends that the board of directors ensure that the company has a capital and share structure ensuring that the strategy and longterm value creation of the company are in the best interest of the shareholders and the company, and that the board of directors presents this in the management commentary on the company's annual report and/or on the company's website.	X			This is included in the work of the Board of Directors on an ongoing basis and is accounted for in the company's annual report.
2.1.4. The Committee recommends that the board of directors annually review and approve guidelines for the executive board; this includes establishing requirements for the executive board on timely, accurate and adequate reporting to the board of directors.	X			The Board of Directors has approved Rules of Procedure for the Executive Committee which the Board of Directors reviews annually in order to ensure that the rules of procedure always reflect the

				business and needs of the company and set out the necessary requirements for the Executive Committee's reporting to the Board of Directors. The rules of procedure for both the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors combined with the company's corporate governance rules constitute the more specific framework for the distribution of work between the company's Board of Directors and Executive Committee.
2.1.5. The Committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors discuss the composition of the executive board, as well as developments, risks and succession plans.	X			The Board of Directors discusses this issue as part of its annual evaluation of the Executive Committee.
2.1.6. The Committee recommends that once a year the board of directors discuss the company's activities to ensure relevant diversity at management levels, including setting specific goals and accounting for its objectives and progress made in achieving the objectives in the management commentary on the company's annual report and/or on the website of the company.	X			Discussion of diversity at management levels takes place several times a year, for instance in relation to the Board of Directors' selection and nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors' review

On the company's website, the company's initiatives to support diversity with regard to for instance women in management, senior practice, opportunity of flexible jobs and other types of positions with a view to securing diversity are also accounted for.
2.2. Corporate social responsibility
2.2.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors adopt policies on corporate social responsibility.	X			The Board of Directors has adopted a Corporate Social Responsibility strategy (CSR strategy) including a number of related policies as well as accession to UN Global Compact.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
				The company's CSR strategy is built around the following five focus areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Digital Denmark</li> <li>2. Togetherness</li> <li>3. Customer trust &amp; safety</li> <li>4. Employee well-being and diversity</li> <li>5. Climate &amp; environment</li> </ol> The strategy and the related policies, objectives and results of the company's work on CSR are described more detailed on the company's website and in an online CSR Report which is an integrated part of the company's annual report.
2.3. Chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors
2.3.1. The Committee recommends appointing a vice-chairman of the board of directors who will assume the responsibilities of the chairman in the event of the chairman's absence, and who will also act as effective sparring partner for the chairman.	X			The Chairman and the Vice Chairman are elected at the constituent board meeting immediately following the annual general meeting.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
2.3.2. The Committee recommends ensuring that, if the board of directors, in exceptional cases, asks the chairman of the board of directors to perform special operating activities for the company, including briefly participating in the day-to-day management, a board resolution to that effect be passed to ensure that the board of directors maintains its independent, overall management and control function. Resolutions on the chairman’s participation in day-to-day management and the expected duration hereof should be published in a company announcement.	X			At this time, the Board of Directors has not requested the Chairman of the Board of Directors to carry out special tasks for the company. If the Board of Directors at a later stage would feel induced to request its Chairman to carry out such special tasks; this will be done in accordance with this recommendation.
<h3>3. Composition and organization of the board of directors</h3>
<h4>3.1. Composition</h4>
3.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors annually accounts for <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the skills it must have to best perform its tasks,</li> <li>• the composition of the board of directors, and</li> <li>• the special skills of each member.</li> </ul>	X			The Board of Directors has prepared a competence profile, which the Board of Directors reviews annually in connection with its evaluation. 				specific competencies of the individual members.
3.1.2. The Committee recommends that the selection and nomination of candidates for the board of directors be carried out through a thoroughly transparent process approved by the overall board of directors. When assessing its composition and nominating new candidates, the board of directors must take into consideration the need for integration of new talent and diversity in relation to age, international experience and gender.	X			The Board of Directors has set up a Nomination Committee, which, among other things, works on selecting and nominating candidates for the Board of Directors for approval by the Board of Directors prior to nomination for election of such candidates at the company's general meeting. The recruitment criteria, of which the entire Board of Directors is informed, are determined in consideration of the need for renewal and diversity.
3.1.3. The Committee recommends that a description of the nominated candidates' qualifications, including information about the candidates' <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• other executive functions, e.g. memberships in executive boards, boards of directors, and supervisory boards, including board committees in foreign enterprises, be accompanied by the notice convening the general meeting when election of members to the board of directors is on the agenda.</li> <li>• demanding organizational tasks, and information</li> </ul>	X			A description of the nominated candidates prepared in accordance with this recommendation is distributed together with the notice to convene when election of board members is on the agenda. 3.1.4. The Committee recommends that the company's articles of association stipulate a retirement age for members of the board of directors.	X			It appears from the company's Articles of Association and also from the Rules of Procedure for the Board of Directors that board members must, at the latest, resign from the Board of Directors at the first annual general meeting following the board member turning 70 years of age.
3.1.5. The Committee recommends that members of the board of directors elected by the general meeting be up for election every year at the annual general meeting.	X
3.2. Independence of the board of directors
3.2.1. The Committee recommends that at least half of the members of the board of directors elected by the general meeting be independent persons, in order for the board of directors to be able to act independently of special interests. To be considered independent, this person may not:	X			Of the seven board members elected by the general meeting six board members are considered independent.

This arrangement has been brought to an end in 2016.
3.3. Members of the board of directors and the number of other executive functions
3.3.1. The Committee recommends that each member of the board of directors assesses the expected time commitment for each function in order that the member does not take on more functions than he/she can manage satisfactorily for the company.	X			Board members are encouraged to make such assessment when nominated to the Board of Directors, as well as on an ongoing basis.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
3.3.2. The Committee recommends that the management commentary, in addition to the provisions laid down by legislation, includes the following information about the members of the board of directors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the position of the relevant person,</li> <li>• the age and gender of the relevant person,</li> <li>• whether the member is considered independent,</li> <li>• the date of appointment to the board of directors of the member,</li> <li>• expiry of the current election period,</li> <li>• other executive functions, e.g. memberships in executive boards, boards of directors, and supervisory boards, including board committees in foreign enterprises and</li> <li>• demanding organizational tasks, and</li> <li>• the number of shares, options, warrants and similar in the company, and other group companies of the company, owned by the member, as well as changes in the portfolio of the member of the securities mentioned which have occurred during the financial year.</li> </ul>	X
3.4. Board committees
3.4.1. The Committee recommends that the company publish the following on the company's website: The terms of reference of the board committees, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the most important activities of the committees during the year, and the number of meetings held by each committee, and</li> <li>• the names of the members of each committee, including the chairmen of the committees, as well as information on which members are independent members and which members have special qualifications.</li> </ul>	X

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
3.4.2. The Committee recommends that a majority of the members of a board committee be independent.	X			The company complies with this recommendation in relation to all four board committees (audit, business review and – development, compensation and nomination).
3.4.3. The Committee recommends that the board of directors set up a formal audit committee composed such that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the chairman of the board of directors is not chairman of the audit committee, and</li> <li>• between them, the members should possess such expertise and experience as to provide an updated insight into and experience in the financial, accounting and audit aspects of companies whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market.</li> </ul>	X			The Board of Directors has set up an Audit Committee which complies with this recommendation.
3.4.4. The Committee recommends that, prior to the approval of the annual report and other financial reports, the audit committee monitors and reports to the board of directors about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• significant accounting policies,</li> <li>• significant accounting estimates,</li> <li>• related party transactions, and</li> <li>• uncertainties and risks, including in relation to the outlook for the current year.</li> </ul>	X			The Audit Committee monitors the financial reporting and reports to the Board of Directors in this regard.
3.4.5. The Committee recommends that the audit committee:	X			Annually, the Audit Committee considers the need for an internal audit function

3.4.6. The Committee recommends that the board of directors establish a nomination committee chaired by the chairman of the board of directors with at least the following preparatory tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>describe the qualifications required by the board of directors and the executive board, and for a specific membership, state the time expected to be spent on having to carry out the membership, as well as assess the competences, knowledge and experience of the two governing bodies combined,</li> <li>annually assess the structure, size, composition and results of the board of directors and the executive board, as well as recommend any changes to the board of directors,</li> <li>annually assess the competences, knowledge and experience of the individual members of management, and report to the board of directors in this respect,</li> <li>consider proposals from relevant persons, including shareholders and members of the board of directors and the executive board for candidates for the board of directors and the executive board, and</li> <li>propose an action plan to the board of directors on the future composition of the board of directors, including proposals for specific changes.</li> </ul>	X			The Board of Directors has set up a Nomination Committee with a solely preparatory purpose and with the Chairman of the Board of Directors as Chairman. The tasks recommended are contained in the Mandate and Charter for the Nomination Committee. The search for candidates for the Board of Directors is conducted by the use of external assistance.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
3.4.7. The Committee recommends that the board of directors establish a remuneration committee with at least the following preparatory tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• to recommend the remuneration policy (including the general guidelines for incentive-based remuneration) to the board of directors and the executive board for approval by the board of directors prior to approval by the general meeting,</li> <li>• make proposals to the board of directors on remuneration for members of the board of directors and the executive board, as well as ensure that the remuneration is in compliance with the company's remuneration policy and the assessment of the performance of the persons concerned. The committee should have information about the total amount of remuneration that members of the board of directors and the executive board receive from other companies in the group, and</li> <li>• recommend a remuneration policy applicable for the company in general.</li> </ul>		X		The Board of Directors has set up a Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee determines the remuneration and other employment terms for members of the Executive Committee, and annually approves the overall principals for the group's bonus and other short- or long-term incentive or retention programmes. The Board of Directors considers it appropriate that a committee of the Board of Directors is able to work in more detail with TDC's current Remuneration Policy for the Board of Directors and Executive Committee and that this committee has a related decision-making authority which, furthermore, is rather limited. The Compensation Committee reports to the entire Board of Directors on an ongoing basis.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
				Otherwise the tasks of the Compensation Committee comply with the recommendation. Thus, the Board of Directors has, upon recommendation from the Compensation Committee, approved the company's Remuneration Policy for the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee prior to approval by the general meeting. Furthermore, the Board of Directors has, upon recommendation from the Compensation Committee, approved a remuneration policy applicable in general to the employees in the group.
3.4.8. The Committee recommends that the remuneration committee do not consult with the same external advisers as the executive board of the company.	X			The Compensation Committee and the Executive Committee do not consult with the same external advisers.
3.5. Evaluation of the performance of the board of directors and the executive board
3.5.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors establish an evaluation procedure where contributions and results of the board of directors and the individual members, as well as collaboration with the	X			The Board of Directors determines the procedure for its annual evaluation.

3.5.3. The Committee recommends that at least once every year the board of directors evaluate the work and performance of the executive board in accordance with predefined clear criteria.	X
3.5.4. The Committee recommends that the executive board and the board of directors establish a procedure according to which their cooperation is evaluated annually through a formalized dialogue between the chairman of the board of directors and the chief executive officer and that the outcome of the evaluation be presented to the board of directors.	X			The cooperation between the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee is evaluated on an ongoing basis at meetings held between the CEO and the Chairman of the Board of Directors. 4. Remuneration of management
4.1. Form and content of the remuneration policy
4.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors prepare a clear and transparent remuneration policy for the board of directors and the executive board, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a detailed description of the components of the remuneration for members of the board of directors and the executive board,</li> <li>• the reasons for choosing the individual components of the remuneration, and</li> <li>• a description of the criteria on which the balance between the individual components of the remuneration is based.</li> </ul> The remuneration policy should be approved by the general meeting and published on the company’s website.	X			The Board of Directors has adopted a clear and transparent Remuneration Policy for the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. The Remuneration Policy includes a detailed description of the components of remuneration for the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. According to the Remuneration Policy, the Board of Directors is only paid cash compensation to avoid conflicts of interest in connection with the conclusion of agreements on and the calculation of performance-related remuneration.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company complies partially	The company does not comply	The explanation for complying partially/not complying with the recommendation
				The remuneration of the Executive Committee is composed of a fixed compensation, pension contributions, company car as well as short and long-term performance related pay elements. The fixed pay elements shall be at an attractive level, but not too high because there should still be a strong incentive for achieving a higher total pay by obtaining the desired results. The composition of the compensation elements is based on the need for both results in the individual financial year and for a long-term sound development of the company. The Remuneration Policy has been adopted by the general meeting, last time in 2014, and is made available at the company's website.
4.1.2. The Committee recommends that, if the remuneration policy includes variable components,	X

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• limits be set on the variable components of the total remuneration package,</li> <li>• a reasonable and balanced linkage be ensured between remuneration for governing body members, expected risks and the value creation for shareholders in the short and long terms,</li> <li>• there be clarity about performance criteria and measurability for award of variable components,</li> <li>• there be criteria ensuring that qualifying periods for variable components in remuneration agreements are longer than one calendar year, and</li> <li>• an agreement is made which, in exceptional cases, entitles the company to reclaim in full or in part variable components of remuneration that were paid on the basis of data, which proved to be misstated.</li> </ul>
4.1.3. The Committee recommends that remuneration of members of the board of directors does not include share options.	X			The Board of Directors receives fixed compensation only and has no incentive scheme.
4.1.4. The Committee recommends that if share-based remuneration is provided, such programmes be established as roll-over programmes, i.e. the options are granted periodically and should have a maturity of at least three years from the date of allocation.	X
4.1.5. The Committee recommends that agreements on termination payments should not amount to more than two years' annual remuneration.	X			No agreements have been made or will be made on termination payments that amount to more than two years' annual remuneration.

4.2.1. The Committee recommends that the company's remuneration policy and compliance with this policy be explained and justified annually in the chairman's statement at the company's general meeting.	X
4.2.2. The Committee recommends that the proposed remuneration for the board of directors for the current financial year be approved by the shareholders at the general meeting.	X
4.2.3. The Committee recommends that the total remuneration granted to each member of the board of directors and the executive board by the company and other companies in the group, including information on the most important contents of retention and retirement/resignation schemes, be disclosed in the annual report and that the linkage with the remuneration policy be explained.		X		The company's annual report includes details of the aggregated remuneration provided by the company to the CEO and CFO respectively as well as the aggregated remuneration provided to the rest of the Executive Committee calculated in total. Individual information on remuneration to the CEO and the CFO is considered adequate, taking the size of the company's Executive Committee into account. Furthermore, the annual report contains information about the aggregated

5. Financial reporting, risk management and audits
5.1. Identification of risks and transparency about other relevant information
5.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors in the management commentary review and account for the most important strategic and business-related risks, risks in connection with the financial reporting as well as for the company's risk management.	X			The company/group is facing both internal risks such as operational risks and external risks such as market and regulatory risks. General risk management is an integrated part of the group's business operations. On an annual basis, as part of the forecast/guidance process, an extensive risk assessment is carried out, in which business lines and corporate functions identify all significant risks. The risks are then consolidated and evaluated at group level based on their potential impact and probability, which is then reported to the Board of Directors. Responsibilities are

				assigned for significant risks, and mitigation initiatives are established and tracked. In addition hereto, the Board of Directors conducts a current assessment of strategic and business-related risks in connection with specific projects. Risks in relation to the financial reporting are evaluated on an ongoing basis by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee reports to the Board of Directors. The recommended information is included in the company's annual report.
5.2. Whistleblower scheme
5.2.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors decide whether to establish a whistleblower scheme for expedient and confidential notification of possible or suspected wrongdoing.	X			The Board of Directors has adopted a whistleblower scheme, which came into force in July 2011 for TDC A/S. In July 2013, the Board of Directors decided to

				expand the scheme to TDC Telco ApS. The whistleblower scheme enables employees in TDC A/S and Telco ApS to make anonymous or non-anonymous notifications of possible or suspected serious wrongdoings in the company. Notifications of possible or suspected serious financial wrongdoings are a matter of the Audit Committee, which shall prepare a recommendation regarding the notification for decision by the Board of Directors. Notifications of other possible or suspected serious wrongdoings are a matter of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
5.3. Contact to auditor
5.3.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors ensure regular dialogue and exchange of information between the auditor and the board of directors, including that the board of directors and the audit committee at least once a year meet with the auditor without the executive board present. This also applies to the internal auditor, if any.	X			The Board of Directors has regular dialogue and exchange of information with the company's auditor.

				The Board of Directors has at least one annual meeting with the auditor, where the Executive Committee is not present. After each audit committee meeting, the Audit Committee meets with the auditor without the presence of the Executive Committee. The audit committee conducted three meetings in 2016. The company has not established an internal audit function.
5.3.2. The Committee recommends that the audit agreement and auditors' fee be agreed between the board of directors and the auditor on the basis of a recommendation from the audit committee.
